HOSPSPACE is a one day annual conference and exhibition hosted by HOSPA the Hospitality Professionals Association. The day culminates in the annual awards dinner where trophies are presented for the best leaders in the areas of:

- Hospitality Finance
- Hospitality Revenue Management
- Hospitality Technology

For the first time in HOSPA's history, HOSPSPACE will take place in central London. The chosen venue is the newly refurbished and fabulous Royal Lancaster London, with easy access by road, London underground and bus.

The day will be filled with educational lectures and debates covering current hot topics presented by highly renowned speakers from within the industry. There will also be a set of workshops and technical updates covering specific areas needing a more in depth analysis, including finance, asset management, technology, revenue management and marketing. The conference attracts the hospitality industry's most influential senior executives and leaders, keen to hear from their peers and to network with industry colleagues. Ambitious managers and aspiring managers reap many rewards from the day, contributing significantly to their professional development.

Alongside the conference is an exhibition, showcasing the leading suppliers of solutions to hospitality.

The awards dinner will start with a drinks reception followed by a glittering evening with awards presented throughout the night. Dress code is business attire.
